On her sixteenth birthday, Georgiana Smith learns the truth about who and what she is: a were animal. As she gets to meet and know more about the family she ignored existed and spends time in the new world she discovers she belongs to, she's told she's one of the five weres from a prophecy thousands of years old that states that the Five, white were mixes, will take over the Council that rules over weres. Georgiana will have to open up to and learn to trust again as she leaves heartbreak behind, but she'll also have to face dangerous situations when threats take different forms and her suspicions aren't unfaithfully accurate. The first book of the series The Five starts with Georgiana's journey as her life is changed forever. "It is dark and void of light, a moonless sky on a full moon's night. Where it had gone, no one knew, nor did they know what to do. The moon sits alone, in empty space, a look of despair paints his face. This is not typical of our friend the moon, and on this particular night, he is full of gloom. A shooting star is passing by, but suddenly stops as the moon begins to cry. There is no one around near or far, "what is wrong?" asks the star". Will the moon ever return full again? What is it that causes the moon's despair? Will he ever find happiness? "A Full Moon's Night", is a story-time ready book, with engaging original illustrations by the author. "A Full Moon's Night", is both stimulating and educational to the reader. Young children's interest will be maintained as they learn how the moon plays an important role in the world's Eco-system by keeping the ocean's tide in balance, and providing light to the earth during the night. This story provides a life lesson that everyone is unique and has an important role to play. "This is a great guide to the night sky at a great price" Astronomy Now "A handy and straightforward guide ... attractive little booklet" British Astronomical Association's 'Journal' "an ideal Christmas stocking-filler" The Observatory Rhiow seems a perfectly ordinary New York City cat. Or so her humans think--but she is much more than she appears. With her partners Saash and Urruah, she collaborates with human wizards, protecting the earth from dark forces and helping to maintain the network of magical gateways between different realities. En una noche serena, un rayo de luna entra por la ventana. La niña despierta. Desde el balcón ve la luna llena. Es algo sorprendente. Desde entonces la luna llena la acompañará en el recorrido de la órbita de su vida. Con un instinto que la mueve, con un sexto sentido heredado de siglos atrás, se sentirá atraída por la luna. Sin embargo, la atracción es mutua: la niña y la luna. Este libro, en su mayor parte biográfico, fue escrito en noches de luna llena, ya que la autora asegura que desde chiquita no puede dormir en estas noches, y así nace "Noches de Luna Llena." It is a quiet night. A glint of light enters through the window. The little girl awakes.

From the balcony she watches the full moon. It is something amazing for her. The moon will always accompany her as she lives her life. She will be attracted by the moon instinctually, a psychic gift that she inherits centuries ago. Most of this book is autobiographical. It was written during nights of the full moon. The author says that since she was a little girl, she couldn't sleep during these nights, and this is how Nights of the Full Moon was born. The solstice signals the changing of the seasons - a much awaited phenomenon on December 21 or 22 for winter and Christmas holiday fans. Anyone who appreciates quiet winter evenings and snow covered landscapes would love this.

Nothing will stop Libby Mitchell from visiting her best friend, Fawn, during a special ceremony at the nearby wigwam camp. But Libby's adventure takes an unexpected turn when soldiers suddenly rush in. They order everyone at the camp, including Libby, to move off the land—immediately! With each passing day, the displaced people must move farther away from home. Will Libby ever see her family again? History Stepping Stones now feature updated content that emphasizes Common Core and today's renewed interest in nonfiction. Perfect for home, school, and library bookshelves! Almost a Full Moon is a warm-hearted story of family, community, food and home. A boy and his grandmother host a gathering in their small cabin in the middle of winter. Friends travel from near and far, and some new friends even turn up. The walls of the cabin are elastic and the soup pot bottomless; all are welcome. Based on the lyrics of Hawksley Workman's song from his holiday album Almost a Full Moon, this book evokes both the cold and the coziness of a winter's night: crisp clean air, sparkling snow, the light of the moon, welcoming windows, glowing candles, family and friends. The spare text is beautifully complemented with the rich illustrations of Jensine Eckwall, a new talent to Tundra. She brings beauty and a hint of magic to Workman's evocative lyrics; together, they create a world and a night that will enchant readers of all ages. "...There will be signs in the sun, in the moon, and in the stars...Now when these things begin to happen, look up and lift up your heads, because your redemption draws near." Luke 21:25a, 28 It is rare that Scripture, science, and history align with each other, yet the last three series of Four Blood Moons have done exactly that. Are these the "signs" that God refers to in His Word? If they are, what do they mean? What is their prophetic significance? All around the world people are affected by and in awe of a full moon. In this poetic exploration of the lunar wonder, places near and far provide the backdrop for discovering celebrations, beliefs, customs and facts about the moon. From Broadway to Hong Kong to the International Space Station, the various perspectives, sparkling verses and depth of information create a fascinating rendering of a familiar, yet remarkable sight. A short story about a young witch in training and her adventures. New York Times bestselling author Gentry Lee, co-author with Arthur C. Clarke of Rama II, The Garden of Rama, and Rama Revealed, tells an unforgettable tale of two timeless lovers, a group of Martian colonists, and one of the most thrilling and mysterious adventures in human history. On a tiny island paradise inside a vast alien sphere, Johann Eberhardt and his daughter, Maria, live in virtual isolation. Now their paradise has been invaded by a violent and enigmatic life-form. Risking everything, Johann and Maria begin a treacherous journey across the waters in search of their fellow Martian colonists. But they have no idea what awaits them on the other side—until a mystical vision of Johann's beloved Beatrice appears to him with a dire warning and the possibility of attaining an undreamed-of spiritual evolution. Soon to be transported to an exotic planet, the colonists must overcome their dissension and jealousy if they are to survive the upcoming “double full moon night.” If not, they will all be destroyed . . . and the secrets of the universe will remain forever unknown to mankind. Through the centuries people have measured time by the phases of the moon. From January’s Wolf Moon to June’s Honey Moon, and from September’s Harvest Moon to December’s Long-Night Moon, Joanne Taylor introduces the names of each full moon in a gentle narrative that follows the rhythms of a farm family’s life. Folklore and real life blend in a beautiful new book about the seasons. The lyrical text is perfectly complemented by Susan Tooke’s gorgeous paintings. The book of great senses! This poetry collection describes not only the deep feelings, different character, huge love and respect of a simple woman but the entire emotions of the all-women among us. Hope a collection of poetry by Uzbek author Erkatosh Shukurova would lead you on the incomparable paradise of inner emotions. The most thrilling of all journeys--the missions of the Apollo astronauts to the surface of the Moon and back--yielded 32,000 extraordinarily beautiful photographs, the record of a unique human achievement. Until recently, only a handful of these photographs had been released for publication; but now, for the first time, NASA has allowed a selection of the master negatives and transparencies to be scanned electronically, rendering the sharpest images of space that we have ever seen. Michael Light has woven 129 of these stunningly clear images into a single composite voyage, a narrative of breathtaking immediacy and authenticity that begins with the launch and is followed by a walk in space, an orbit of the Moon, a lunar landing and exploration, and a return to Earth with an orbit and splashdown. Graced by five 45-inch-wide gatefolds that display the lunar landscape, from above the surface and at eye level, in unprecedented detail and clarity, Full Moon conveys on each page the excitement, disorientation, and awe that the astronauts themselves felt as they were shot into space and then as they explored an alien landscape and looked back at their home planet from hundreds of thousands of miles away. Published on the thirtieth anniversary of Apollo 11--the first landing on the Moon--this remarkable and mesmerizing volume is, like the voyages it commemorates and re-creates, an experience both intimate and monumental. It Is A Delightful Collection Of 41 Short Stories, Several Of Which First Appeared In Kartar Singh Duggal’s Twelfth Collection Of Stories In Punjabi Ik Chhit Chanan Di Which Won The Sahitya Akademi Award In 1965. The Stories In This Volume Reflect The Indian Scene In Its Rare Moments Of Agony And Ecstasy, Triumph And Tribulation, Harmony And Discord. The Bishop of Mars--a woman--is kidnaped by hostile elements along with an agnostic German engineer and they are ordered to make love. The woman, a nun, refuses to break her vow of chastity and the hostile elements resort to force. By the co-author of Rama Revealed. An up-to-date, clear and interesting introduction to our magnificent moon from the the award-winning author of science books for children. Shining light on all kinds of fascinating facts about our moon, this simple, introductory book includes information on how the moon affects the oceans' tides, why the same side of the moon always faces earth, why we have eclipses, and more. This newly revised edition, available in time for the 50th anniversary of the moon landing, incorporates new, up-to-date information based on recent discoveries, and includes an updated map of the moon's surface. Thoroughly vetted by an astrophysics expert, The Moon Book is a perfect introduction lunar phases, orbit, the history of space exploration, and more. Using her signature combination of colorful, clear illustrations and accessible text, Gail Gibbons reinforces important vocabulary with simple explanations, perfect for budding astronomers. Legends about the moon, trivia, and facts about the moon landing are also included. What a night! The moon is full. Kitten is hungry and inquisitive and brave and fast and persistent and unlucky . . . then lucky! What a night! At nightfall the coyotes turn up their faces and sing of the changes brought by the four seasons, attracting snakes, bats, nightbirds, and other desert creatures. The moon changes phases, of this, we're aware; but who ever heard of a full moon that's square? It appears at the pond on the darkest of nights, when the bright little fireflies turn on their lights. It's hard to read after dark, and a frog at the local pond is having just that problem. Realizing the frog's dilemma, a number of bright fireflies offer to help by illuminating the sky above him with both derring-do and a knack for mathematical precision. Through a series of square formations, the flies tirelessly search for the right equation to light the pond on a moonless night. Children will learn with ease from this creative tale about the power of co-operation and simple math. Size: 8,5 x 11 inches, 100 unlined white pages with Halloween motifs, gloss cover, paperback. Have you ever stopped to consider what might be revealed in one spot over one year by twelve unique and exquisite full moons? Kib, moving to a new home with his family, does not like the idea of having his own room. He is afraid of the dark! Mother Nid gives Kib a night-light for his new room. However, Kib's older brother, Mib, shares with him about the moon phases he learned at school. Each night, they look out Kib's bedroom window, waiting for the night-light full moon. Full Moon Suppers at Salt Water Farm invites you to a series of magical, seasonal suppers where dear friends gather around a farm table to celebrate the bounty that the land and sea provide. This menu-driven cookbook offers twelve beautifully crafted meals derived from more than one hundred sold-out evening events at Salt Water Farm, the author's cooking school in Maine. Even if you can't make it to one of Annemarie's monthly Full Moon Suppers, you can re-create them at home, beneath a full moon—or any night—for family and friends. Each supper includes a portrait of the month: its climate, its rewards, and its ritual kitchen tasks—and a menu inspired by those characteristics. A Full Moon Supper is not only a celebration of the earth and its bounty but a reward for the hard work that goes into food production. These meals pay respect to the elements, the conditions of the earth, soil, and sea, and seasonal traditions as we round the lunar cycle. Lunar Abundance is a beautiful and practical guide for today's women on cultivating peace, purpose, and abundance in both their personal and professional lives, guided by the phases of the moon. In a world in which women feel increasingly disconnected—from their inner selves, each other, and the world, Lunar Abundance offers a path to reconnection, with results that you can actually see. It shows how by tuning into the natural rhythm of lunar ebbs and flows, you can connect with work, relationships, your body, and surroundings on a higher level than ever before, becoming more productive and self-aware in the process. Filled with inspirational photography and interactive features, it's also a practical guide to self-care that will help you summon your true potential and create a better life for you and for those in your orbit. This beautiful book is perfect for any woman seeking holistic wellness and unique inspiration to feed mind, body, and soul. This one-of-a-kind, fun-to-read book covers over 5,000 years of North American Indian history, culture, and lore.
