A Selection of Modern Italian Poetry in Translation Jul 22

2020 What was Italian poetry like in the years of extraordinary historical, intellectual, aesthetic, and spiritual change between the 1860s and the Unification of Italy in the 1960s? In A Selection of Modern Italian Poetry in Translation Roberta Payne provides a bilingual collection of ninety-two poems by thirty-five Italian poets, including works of classicism and passionate decadentism, examples of crepuscularism, and poetry by Ungaretti, Montale, and Quasimodo. Payne pays particular attention to poets of the fifties and sixties, futurists, and female poets. She notes that the futurists, who have rarely been translated, were particularly important as they were truly original, attempting to develop new notions of word, line, sound, and phrase. Such new notions make translating them particularly challenging. She also offers a large sampling from poets of the fifties and sixties, many of whom have won the Viareggio Prize. Poems by women in this volume reflect diverse schools and directions while maintaining a distinctly female voice. Containing the original Italian and the translation side-by-side, this volume offers a wonderful introduction to Italian poetry to scholars and general readers alike.

I am God Mar 10 2022 A serial killer holds New York in his grip. He does not choose his victims. Nor does he watch them die. But then there are too many of them for that. The explosion of a twenty-two storey building, followed by the casual discovery of a letter, lead the police to face up to a dreadful reality: some of New York's buildings were mined at the time of their construction. But which ones? And how many? A young female detective hiding her personal demons behind a tough appearance, and a former press photographer with a past he'd rather forget, and for which he still seeks forgiveness, are the only hope of stopping this psychopath. A man who does not even claim responsibility for his actions. A man who believes himself to be God.

Italian Literature: Il tristano panciaticchiano Jan 28 2021 The Arthurian Archives series of texts and editions in translation, edited by Norris J. Lacy, makes a start on Italian Arthurian material, with a 14c Tristan text. This is the first critical edition with English translation of the prose compilation Tristano panciaticchiano, preserved in a unique manuscript in the Biblioteca Nazionale of Florence (MS Panc. 33); it is the first time the Italian text has been published in its entirety in any form. Assembled by the mid-fourteenth century, the manuscript is an original compilation in Italian based on several French models: the Queste del San Graal, Josephd'Arimathie, the Mort

Artu, and notably, the Roman de Tristan en prose. While the edition itself will be of great interest, the translation into English is a major opportunity for Arthurians and other medievalists, and furnishes important new evidence for the study of Arthurian material in Italy. Apparatus includes a finding list of Arthurian manuscripts produced, owned or read by Italians; a select bibliography; and an index of proper names found in the narrative.

Io sono Thea Feb 09 2022 Che cosa scriverebbe un gatto se avesse un diario segreto? Thea è una dolcissima gattina che risponde a questa domanda. Da quando è diventata parte di una famiglia di umani, appunta le sue osservazioni e le sue riflessioni su ciò che accade intorno a lei, sul rapporto con Paa-a e Maa-ma e con Micio Nero, che sarà per lei un maestro di vita. Il punto di vista di Thea strapperà qualche sorriso ma nel leggere le pagine del suo diario si avrà l'opportunità di provare a immedesimarsi nelle emozioni che anche degli esseri così speciali come i gatti possono provare, soprattutto l'amore. Perché leggere il diario di Thea? Perché non è un personaggio inventato. Esiste davvero ed è la gattina di famiglia di Daniela della Flora, autrice di questo delizioso libro che sarà amato da chi ha la fortuna di convivere con un gatto e da chi sogna di farlo presto. Daniela Della Flora è nata a Milano nel 1956. Dopo il diploma al Liceo Artistico di Brera ha collaborato, per dodici anni, con il prestigioso studio di restauro della Dott.ssa Pinin Brambilla presso il quale ha avuto modo di approfondire la conoscenza dei dipinti dei maggiori artisti italiani ed esteri. Lasciata la carriera di restauratrice per dedicarsi attivamente all'azienda di famiglia ha mantenuto vivi i propri interessi artistici e affinato le capacità tecniche prima presso la Scuola di Pittura di Trezzano Sul Naviglio sotto la guida del Prof. Franco Migliaccio, poi, nel 2010 ha ottenuto una laurea in Pittura alla Libera Accademia di Belle Arti a Brescia. Vive e lavora in provincia di Milano.
